

News

Alliant Private Client continues expansion with addition of Nancy Yoshida

Her addition strengthens the company's next generation of industry leaders.

March 17, 2026

Alliant Private Client has added Nancy Yoshida, CIC, as Senior Vice President. Yoshida brings more than 35 years of experience advising high-net-worth clients and working across personal and small commercial lines.

In her new role, she will work closely with the executive leadership team to support talent development across the Private Client division. Her focus will include mentoring emerging professionals and helping shape the next generation of advisors within the business.

“

I'm excited to join Alliant Private Client at such an exciting time of growth" — Nancy Yoshida

Her addition reinforces Private Client's commitment to hiring experienced advisors who bring deep industry expertise, strong client relationships, and professional credibility to the team.