Alliant Private Client continues expansion with addition of Nancy Yoshida

Her addition expands west coast footprint and strengthens expertise in the sports & entertainment space.

March 16, 2026

Alliant Private Client has added Nancy Yoshida as Senior Vice President, continuing the firm's recent expansion on the West Coast and further strengthening its presence in the sports and entertainment industry.

Yoshida brings extensive experience advising high-net-worth individuals and business management clients on personal and small commercial insurance strategies.

Her addition reinforces Private Client's commitment to hiring experienced advisors who bring client relationships, industry expertise, and credibility.
